- (c) Minutes of previous meetings that have been circulated to members at least 24 hours before the regular meeting shall be considered for adoption without reading; in all other cases, the members shall read the minutes at the meeting, prior to commencement of the meeting.

H. COMMUNICATIONS/PETITIONS/DEPUTATIONS

- (a) Any written messages, memorials and/or enquiries before Council for consideration may be referred, at the discretion of Council, to a Committee of Council and/or staff for response thereto;
- (b) Petitions shall be signed by the subscribers and presented to Council by an appointed representative who has knowledge of the information stated therein;
- (c) Every petition, communication and deputation shall be delivered to the Clerk on or before 1:00 p.m. the Wednesday prior to the regularly scheduled Council meeting.
- (d) Any person wishing to make a deputation shall submit a request in writing to the Clerk no later than 1:00 p.m. on the Wednesday prior to the meeting at which they wish to be heard. The written request shall include the "Request for Delegation/Deputation Before Council" form, attached to this By-law as Schedule "A", together with a signed detailed written submission outlining the matter to be presented to Council, including the specific details of the nature of the business to be discussed and the person(s) named to make the deputation. The Request for Delegation Before Council Form, together with the signed detailed written submission shall be circulated with the Council agenda. Failure to submit the Request for Deputation/Delegation Before Council Form together with the signed detailed written submission by the deadline will result in the deputation/delegation not being placed on Council's agenda.
- (e) Deputations will be limited to ten (10) minutes in length per speaker and to avoid repetition, any deputation on behalf of an organization, including any corporation, association or on behalf of any group, shall be made by no more than 2 representatives. Notwithstanding this, Council may extend the time of the deputation upon a majority vote in the affirmative.
- (f) Emergency Deputation requests will be received by the Reeve and will be heard at the leave of a majority of Council.
- (g) On any given meeting night a maximum of four (4) ten (10) minute deputations will be scheduled.
- (h) Upon completion of comments to Council by a deputation, any discourse between members of Council and the deputation shall be limited to members asking questions for clarification and obtaining additional, relevant information only. Members of Council shall not enter into debate with the deputant respecting their comments.

- (i) The Reeve may curtail a deputation for disorder or any other breach of this by-law. Once the Reeve rules that the deputation is concluded, the person or persons appearing shall withdraw. Failure to withdraw or to engage in behaviour that is inappropriate can result in the Reeve requesting the person(s) to vacate the Municipal building. Failure to vacate the building when requested will result in the Reeve suspending the meeting until order is restored. If necessary, the Clerk may be called upon to seek appropriate assistance from police for this purpose.
- (j) Subsequent deputations on the same topic by the same person, or groups will be accepted providing there is and will be limited to the submission of new information only.
- (k) No deputation may be scheduled for a closed session, nor shall a deputation be permitted regarding any specific personnel matters where an individual may be identified.
- (l) No deputant shall:
  - i.) Speak disrespectfully of any person.
  - ii.) Use offensive words, gestures or make abusive comments.
  - iii.) Speak on any subject other than the subject stated in their written request for the deputation.
  - iv.) Enter into debate with other deputations, administration, Council members or the Chair.
  - v.) Disobey the rules of procedure or decisions of the Council or Chair.
- (m) Members of the public attending a Council and/or Committee meeting shall respect the decorum of Council or Committee and refrain from public outburst; shouting; or behaviour intended to disrupt the debate, discussion and/or general proceedings of the Council/Committee. The Reeve or Chair may request that a member or members of the public vacate the Council Chambers if their behaviour is deemed to be disruptive to the business at hand. The Reeve or Chair may unilaterally suspend the meeting until order is restored to the Council Chambers.”
- (n) NOTICE TO DEPUTANTS AND TO THE PUBLIC: Deputants and the Public are advised that Council and Committee meetings are open to the public and that there is no legal protection or other privilege in relation to any statements that you make in this forum. This means that anything you say would be subject to the normal laws of defamation. Any behaviour or conduct that is disruptive to the public meeting can result in other charges being brought against you. Consequently, you should take care in how you make your address and act accordingly.
- (o) Any person who reads from a prepared statement during a deputation to Council shall provide a copy of said document to the Clerk at the conclusion of the deputation for the Township’s records.

I. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

- (a) Unfinished business shall be listed on the agenda in the order in which it first came before Council for consideration and if not dealt with at the meeting of Council at which it appeared on the agenda, shall continue to be listed until finalized.

- (a) Every proposed by-law shall be introduced upon motion by a member of Council or upon report from any Committee of Council;
- (b) Every By-law shall be given three readings;
- (c) Every by-law read before Council shall be recorded by the Clerk and upon third reading shall be signed by the Presiding Officer and the Clerk and the Corporate Seal shall be added as soon as possible thereafter;
- (d) A by-law shall be passed only at a regular council meeting (or a reconvened regular meeting that had been properly adjourned to a specific time) or a special meeting that, when called, cites the consideration and passing of the by-law as one of its purposes.

K. CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS AT COUNCIL MEETINGS

- (a) It shall be the duty of the Presiding Officer to:
  - (i) open the meeting of Council/Committee by taking the chair and calling the members to order;
  - (ii) announce the business before Council/Committee in the order in which it appears on the agenda;
  - (iii) receive and submit, in the proper manner, all resolutions presented by Council/Committee;
  - (iv) put to a vote all questions, which are regularly moved and seconded or arise in the course of the proceedings, and to announce the result;
  - (v) decline to put to a vote any resolution that infringes on the Rules of Order;
  - (vi) restrain members when engaged in debate with the Rules of Order;
  - (vii) enforce, at all times, the observance of the Rules of Order;
  - (viii) call by name any member who persists in a breach of the Rules of Order and if such breach continues, to order the member to vacate his seat;
  - (ix) authenticate, by his signature, all by-laws, resolutions and minutes of Council/Committee;
  - (x) sign and seal, in conjunction with the Clerk, all agreements and other municipal documents that have been approved by Council;
  - (xi) inform Council, when necessary, or when referred to for the purpose, on a point of order or usage;
  - (xii) represent Council/Committee, declaring its will and obeying its decisions as indicated by resolution;
  - (xiii) ensure that the decisions of Council/Committee are in conformity with current by-laws and laws governing the activities of Council/Committee;
  - (xiv) adjourn the meeting at the time of curfew indicated herein, or before if order of business is finished, or as extended by quorum of Council;
  - (xv) adjourn the meeting without question where a grave case of disorder or disagreement arises in the Council chambers;
  - (xvi) expel or exclude from any meeting any person who has been guilty of improper conduct at the meeting.
  - (xvii) temporarily step down as presiding officer during a meeting if the Presiding Officer wishes to speak on a motion taking a definite position and endeavouring to persuade the council to support that position. The Reeve shall not be debating and acting as Presiding Officer at the same time.
- (b) The Council may adjourn to a Committee of the Whole for an in camera discussion, but no business may be transacted in the said meeting. The procedure for going into Committee of the Whole: quorum of Council pass a motion to do so, setting time, and when the meeting is over, a motion to come back to open meeting, showing time. The regular meeting then shall proceed.

L. DECORUM OF MEMBERS

- (a) No member shall:
  - (i) disturb another, or Council in general, by disorderly deportment to any member speaking;
  - (ii) resist the rules of Council/Committee or disobey the decisions of the Presiding Officer or Council on questions of order or upon the interpretation of the Rules of Order;
  - (iii) be permitted to retake his seat at any meeting after being ordered to vacate same due to a breach;
  - (iv) leave his chair after the Presiding Officer has called for a vote on a resolution before Council/Committee;
  - (v) leave his chair or the Council Chambers without the consent of the Presiding Officer.
- (b) To withdraw, table, or defer a motion once it is on the floor, it must be voted on by Council, verbally or written, with a simple majority to carry.

M. RULES OF DEBATE

(a) The Presiding Officer

In directing the course of debate, the Presiding Officer shall:

- (i) designate the member who has the floor, when two or more members arise to speak;
- (ii) preserve order and decide questions of order;
- (iii) read all resolutions presented in writing.

(b) Members and Presiding Officer

In addressing the Council/Committee, all comments must proceed through the Presiding Officer only, and no member shall:

- (i) speak disrespectfully or use indecent, offensive, or insulting language in or against staff, the Council or any member thereof;
- (ii) speak to any matter except the question in debate;
- (iii) reflect upon any prior decision of Council except to conclude remarks with a resolution to rescind such decision;
- (iv) interrupt the member who has the floor except to raise a point of order.

- (c) The mover of a resolution shall have the privilege of being the first speaker in the debate on the resolution, and shall have the further privilege of speaking once more to conclude the debate.

N. POINT OF ORDER and POINT OF PRIVILEGE

- (a) Any member may appeal to the Presiding Officer to make a decision on a point of order or a point of privilege and if the Presiding Officer declines to make such decision, a quorum of Council/Committee shall make such decision.”
- (b) The ruling of the Presiding Officer shall be final unless a Member appeals the ruling to Council.
- (c) If the ruling is appealed, the Members (excluding the Presiding Officer) shall decide, without debate, on the question “Should the ruling of the Presiding Officer be upheld?,” and the decision of the majority of Members (excluding the Presiding Officer) on this question shall be final.

- (d) In the event of a tie on the question referred to in (c), the decision of the Presiding Officer shall be upheld.

O. MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

- (a) Introduction Without Notice

A motion may be introduced without notice upon leave, either verbally or written, of a quorum of Council/Committee.

- (b) Form of Resolution

Any resolution adopted by Council/Committee shall be in writing under the signature of the mover and seconder and over the signature of the Presiding Officer.

- (c) Motion and Resolution Must Be Seconded

A motion must be formally seconded, in writing, before the Presiding Officer may request a vote on the same or a resolution be recorded in the minutes.

- (d) Withdrawal of Motion

After a motion has been read or has been stated by the Presiding Officer, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of Council and can only be withdrawn before decision or amendment only with leave of Council expressed by resolution, either verbally or written.

- (e) Priority of Disposition

A motion properly before Council/Committee for decision must receive disposition before any other motion can be received except a motion to amend, to adjourn, to extend the hour of adjournment or decide a point of order or privilege.

- (f) Amendment Resolution

All proposed amendments to resolutions shall be in writing and shall be dealt with in the order presented to Council/Committee and shall not propose a question in direct opposition to the resolution before Council/Committee.

- (g) Review of Topic of Resolution

A resolution may not be revisited in future meetings of Council/Committee unless an individual member who voted in the majority decision resurrects the topic of discussion.

- (h) Motion of Adjournment

A motion to adjourn shall always be deemed to be in order, except when a member is speaking or there is a question on the floor and cannot be amended. If the motion is decided negatively, the Council/Committee shall take alternate action as provided by this by-law to extend the curfew of the meeting in process.

- (i) Repetition

A motion presented in the order in which it stands on the agenda and which is not decided by Council/Committee shall remain on the agenda under "Unfinished Business" until said motion is voted upon by Council/Committee.

(j) Ultra Vires

A motion dealing with any matter not within the Council/Committee jurisdiction shall be deemed to be “ultra vires” (void) and shall not be dealt with by Council/Committee.

(k) Privilege

A motion on a point of order shall be dealt with immediately upon receipt by Council/Committee and when decided upon, Council/Committee shall return to the matter before Council/Committee when said point of order arose. A question of privilege relates to any matter affecting rights and immunities of the Council/Committee collectively, or to the position, reputation, and conduct of members in their respective character.

P. VOTING ON MOTIONS

(a) Question Stated

The Presiding Officer shall state the question before Council/Committee in the exact form in which the question is presented to Council/Committee. When a motion is to amend or reverse a decision of Council/Committee, the Presiding Officer may re-state the previous resolution as it was presented and adopted by Council/Committee.

(b) No Interruption After Question Stated

No member shall interrupt or speak to the question after the Presiding Officer has stated the question to Council/Committee or shall interrupt the voting on a motion before Council/Committee.

(c) Qualified Voters

Except as otherwise provided, every member of Council/Committee shall have one open vote. The Presiding Officer may not move or second any motion, but must vote on a motion.

(d) Nature of Vote

No vote shall be taken by ballot or by any other method of secret voting, and every vote so taken is of no effect.

(e) Tie Vote

Any question on which there is a tie vote shall be deemed to be lost.

(f) Abstention or Failure to Signify Vote

Any member, who is not disqualified to vote by reason of a conflict of interest or other reason under current legislation and who fails to signify his vote when called upon to do so by the Clerk, or who abstains from voting, shall have his vote considered to be negative on the question before Council/Committee and the same shall be recorded by the Clerk.

(g) Recorded Vote

A member may request immediately prior to or immediately after the taking of a vote on a motion that the votes of the members be recorded by the Clerk in random order. Every member shall signify his vote orally in such manner as enables the Clerk to record same in the minutes.

Q. SUSPENSION OF RULES

- (a) Any procedure required by this by-law may be suspended where a resolution, verbally or written, to this effect is supported by a quorum of Council or Committee members.

R. AMENDMENT

- (a) No amendment or repeal of this by-law or any part thereof shall be considered at any meeting of the Council unless notice of proposed amendment or repeal has been given at a previous regular meeting of Council/Committee.

- (a) Any points of procedure not governed by this by-law shall be governed by the rules of parliamentary procedure of the Canadian House of Commons and/or Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition.

T. PUBLIC FORUM

- (a) Every meeting shall commence with a public forum for the purpose of providing members of the public an opportunity to voice opinions and raise issues on matters of concern to them that have not been included on the Agenda.
- (b) Each Person shall be limited to addressing Council once for a maximum of five (5) minutes.
- (c) The length of time of the public forum shall not exceed fifteen (15) minutes unless extended by a Majority Vote. In no case shall the Public Forum be extended more than 15 minutes.

U. AUDIO RECORDING OF COUNCIL MEETINGS

- (a) The Township may make or provide for the audio recording of Regular and Special Council meetings, except those meetings or parts of meetings identified as a closed meeting pursuant to the Municipal Act, 2001, whether such sessions are in Council Chambers or another location, at whatever level and type of recording is available and as Council determines to be appropriate.
- (b) Where Council has made or provided for the audio recording of a Regular or Special Council meeting, except those meetings or parts of meetings identified as a closed meeting pursuant to the Municipal Act, 2001, Council shall make such audio recording available to the public as an audio link on the Township web site.
- (c) The Clerk or designate shall make every effort to post the audio recording of the Regular or Special Council meeting on the Township web site within 4 days of the Council meeting. The Township shall not be responsible for technical difficulties related to the audio recordings. Audio recordings will be available to the public on the Township web site for a minimum of six months from the date of the meeting.
- (d) In accordance with the Municipal Act, 2001, minutes of meetings are to be recorded without note or comment by the Clerk or designate. The official record of the proceedings of Council are the text based minutes as approved by Council. Audio records of Council proceedings are recorded as a convenience only and do not constitute an official record.
- (e) Signage shall be posted in the Council Chambers advising deputations, presenters and the public that the meeting proceedings are being audio recorded and will be made available on the Township web site. The Township assumes no liability for the recorded comments of the public which may be construed as false, defamatory or slanderous in nature.

- (f) The audio or video recording of Council proceedings by anyone other than the municipality is prohibited. Audio or video interviews of a member of Council or Staff can be conducted after the meeting has adjourned if so permitted.”

V. PUBLIC QUESTION/COMMENT PERIOD

- (a) The Public Question/Comment Period referred to in Section F(b) will take part during regular and special Council meetings as determined by Council and be limited to a maximum of 15 minutes and all questions will be relative to listed agenda items with each questioner limited to two minutes.
- (b) When called upon by the Chair, the questioner will identify themselves by name and address the question to the Chair.
- (c) Questions/comments will be responded to with a brief response from the Chair who may also request a response from Council or staff. The Chair and Council reserves the right to defer any question if they are not able to answer it at the meeting.
- (d) Questions/comments shall only be made in respect of matters within Council’s purview and jurisdiction while maintaining decorum in keeping with the following four principles:
  - i. Treatment of every person with dignity, understanding and respect;
  - ii. Behavior that is not discriminatory;
  - iii. Actions free of slander, harassment or bullying;
  - iv. Protection of privacy.
