MOTIONS ARISING FROM CORRESPONDENCE AND REPORTS:

None

OTHER BUSINESS AND MOTIONS ARISING:

1. Jeremy had prepared a December “McKellar Events” poster, to be posted up around the township. The committee felt it to be a good idea to continue with monthly “McKellar Events” posters through the year. Al informed the committee that he has a laminating machine that can be used to laminate the monthly posters. Al also offered to lend the laminating machine to the township office to be used for all township laminating. Morley is to find out from Council if the machine can be located for all to use.
2. Discussion was held on methods to advertise upcoming events.
3. Al felt that a Steam Hotdog Maker would be good for Movie Nights and that he has located one for under $100.00. The committee felt this to be a good idea and the hotdog maker could be used at various events. Moved by Mel Hammond and seconded by Dinah Ryeland Brown that the Recreation Committee approve to spend up to $100.00 for a steam hotdog maker. Motion Carried (17-61).
4. There was discussions on having recreation committee members having some form of identification at recreation committee events. It was decided to get prices on shirts for the upcoming year.

NEXT MEETING: January 25, 2018, 6:30 p.m.

ADJOURNMENT:

Moved by Al Last that the Recreation Committee do adjourn at 7:55 Motion Carried (17-62).
